

Synoptic overview of the amendments to the Statute proposed under item 12 of the agenda of the Annual General Meeting 2025 (place of jurisdiction):

Excerpt from the current version of the Statutes, as at: June 2024	Excerpt from the version of the Articles of Association taking into account the amendments to the Articles of Association proposed for resolution at the Annual General Meeting to be held on June 3, 2025 (amendments highlighted in green)	Excerpt from the version of the Articles of Association taking into account the amendments to the Articles of Association proposed for resolution at the Annual General Meeting to be held on June 3, 2025
	§29a Place of jurisdiction	§29a Place of jurisdiction
	(1) The exclusive place of jurisdiction for all disputes with the company or its executive bodies arising from the corporate relationship shall be at the registered office of the company, unless this conflicts with mandatory statutory provisions. Foreign courts shall not have jurisdiction for such disputes.	(1) The exclusive place of jurisdiction for all disputes with the company or its executive bodies arising from the corporate relationship shall be at the registered office of the company, unless this conflicts with mandatory statutory provisions. Foreign courts shall not have jurisdiction for such disputes.
	(2) Paragraph (1) shall also apply to disputes between shareholders and the company in which compensation is claimed for damages caused by false, misleading or omitted public capital market information."	(2) Paragraph (1) shall also apply to disputes between shareholders and the company in which compensation is claimed for damages caused by false, misleading or omitted public capital market information."

Note: This is a translation of the German-language change synopsis for item 12 of the agenda for the Annual General Meeting 2025. Although SUSS has made every effort to provide a faithful translation, only the text of the German-language invitation as published in the Federal Gazette is binding.